

COMPANY DESCRIPTION:

AirDyne is a small, privately owned, highly focused aircraft special mission systems engineering, manufacturing, and aerospace research firm.

POSITION TITLE: Marketing Manager

LOCATION: Brooksville, Florida, USA

SUMMARY OF POSITION/ POSITION DUTIES:

This new position at AirDyne will work directly with the corporate leaders to develop, evolve, and sustain both digital marketing and corporate communications.

Reporting directly to the CEO, the person in this position will have a great deal of influence and responsibility, and ultimately lay claim to the creation, integration, and sustainment of a marketing message reinforced with exciting new developments and corporate achievements.

You might be a bright person with your first couple of years of corporate marketing experience under your belt, and anxious to apply your skills more broadly to the business. You might have innovative approaches that you want to explore, or simply the freedom to apply the newest techniques more aggressively and/or comprehensively.

You'll have design responsibility, coordinate strategic marketing plans in accordance with business development activities and objectives, and contribute in various ways to the broader marketing, sales, and business development missions.

The position will travel in support of trade show exhibitions, to various customer sites worldwide, and as necessary to get the job done in the best possible way.

Your role within AirDyne will be bounded strictly by your own willingness to work and evidence of success.

Convince me you're the right person.
